After selling 5 million copies of his first three studio albums, Dierks Bentley has become a household name. Not so many years ago, he was singing for tips at various Nashville bars and soaking up country music history at his day job working at the Nashville Network. His fifth studio album Feel That Fire, features three hit singles including the title track, Sideways and I Wanna Make You Close Your Eyes.

SARA EVANSwww.saraevans.com

Sara Evans is on her way to becoming one of the most successful female artists of her generation - an heir to Loretta Lynn and Tammy Wynette with a compelling and beautiful voice. She's won numerous accolades, among them the Academy of Country Music's Female Vocalist of the Year and the Country Music Association's Video of the Year for Born to Fly. Her musical accomplishments are celebrated with the release of Sara Evans – Greatest Hits. Sara Evans is working on her sixth studio album, which will be released in Spring 2010.

TRAILER CHOIRwww.trailerchoir.com

For Trailer Choir, the last 18 months have been a frenetic introduction to the national stage. The fun-loving entertainers rocked thousands on Toby Keith's tour, and the trio of Butter, Big Vinny and Crystal made a notable impression on country music with their self-titled debut album. Known for the party anthem Rockin' The Beer Gut, Trailer Choir jumps from Winstock's Emerging Artist Stage to the Main Stage.

SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 2010GATES OPEN AT 9:30 AM*ALAN JACKSONwww.alanjackson.com

Alan Jackson's recent album Good Time, his 17th release, became the fourth album of Alan's career to simultaneously debut at #1 on Billboard's pop and country charts. In August of 2008, Jackson was honored at a celebration commemorating 50 million albums sold. Alan Jackson recently topped the charts with Country Boy, the third #1 single in a row from that album. He's working on a new studio album, which is expected for a March 2010 release with It's Just That Way as the first single.

JOSH TURNERwww.joshturner.com

Josh Turner has sold more than 4 million albums and garnered two #1 singles with Your Man and Would You Go With Me. His debut album was certified platinum and his sophomore album, Your Man, reached double-platinum status in 2006. Six years after his Opry debut, he was inducted into the prestigious organization, becoming one of the youngest artists to receive such an honor. Josh wrapped up recording his fourth album, Haywire, which will be released in February 2010 and features the single Why Don't We Just Dance.

PHIL VASSARwww.philvassar.com

Those who best understand Phil Vassar also understand the ongoing evolution of his mostly self-penned music. Traveling Circus, his fifth studio album, adds several more layers of artistic expression to his deepening repertoire. The Virginia-born singer, songwriter and musician took his seat as country's leading piano man with the success of songs like Just Another Day In Paradise and Six-Pack Summer.

JAKE OWENwww.jakeowen.net

The journey began in 2006 for Jake Owen with the release of his debut album, Startin' With Me. The insightful title cut hit the country top ten, leading to his first ACM nomination. An out-of-left-field hit with Sugarland and Little Big Town on the tune Life in a Northern Town gave Jake's upward career momentum even more steam, garnering his first CMA and Grammy nominations in 2008. On his follow-up release Easy Does It, Jake builds on these successes, using his own life as the catalyst for his songwriting.
